

*Reverend Anne
Francis T. Jensen*

Picture From The Past

JOHN N. LUNDIN AND HIS THRESHING MACHINE--This threshing machine was one of the first steam driven threshers in Midway in the 1920's. John was the engineer. He studied up on steam driven devices and was one of the few men at that time who could operate such a machine. He is shown here with his crew of Midway men, unidentified.